

Christina L. Crocker

January 7, 1947 - February 6, 2021

Christina L. Crocker, age 74, of Port Huron, passed away on February 6, 2021. She was born on January 7, 1947, Port Huron, to the late Arthur and Juanita Setter.

She attended community college before working at (Farmer Jims) Hamiltons Country Store along side Marion, Debbie and Cindy. She would go on to cook, clean (very neat and tidy) and look after little ones into her seventies and continued to reach out with kind words to those that have grown. The first time riding a bike, catching a fish, a good report card or basketball game are some of the things she so often celebrated. She liked sports, koa campgrounds with family, gospel Elvis, a chat with an old friend or visit from a loved one. What she enjoyed most of all is making us smile or laugh Her kind, gentle spirit matched only by her patience and a big heart is something we've all grown to admire and will greatly miss. If she was ever your buddy she is and will always be your buddy.

She is survived by her children, Steven R. Crocker of Florida, Sheila M. Crocker of Michigan, 17 grandchildren; Steven A. Crocker, Julian, Cannan of Michigan, Alicia (Corey) Mcneill, CJ, Arianna, Cameron, Alivia of Florida, James (Stacey) Crocker JJ, Skylar, Stella of Virginia, Christy (Chris) Crocker, Kadin, Kylee, Chloe, Savannah of Port Huron, brother, David (Marilyn) Setter of Florida, along with several nieces and nephews.
