“ I always called you Grandma although you were my mother-in-law we had a special bond and shared a lot of private conversations, I'll never forget when the girls were little and how much time you spent with them showing your love I am going to miss you but knowing now you are with Bruce and your siblings and out of pain gives me comfort because I know how much you missed your active life. Love you Grandma

“ Grandma I cannot believe you are gone. You were sensitive yet strong. You were never afraid to try new thing. You were my friend and my grandma. Thank you for showing me so many things and experiences. Looking back Grandma you shaped much of my life. I know that now. I thank you because I see much of your legacy of strength and not being afraid to do anything resonating within me as an adult. Thank you.. Thank you Grandma for ALWAYS giving unconditional love. I will miss you today, tomorrow and always. I look forward to seeing you again in heaven... so for now... rest easy.. no more suffering, no more pain.. just peace. Love you Grandma.

“ GLADYS:

Gave the most unique gifts; including her framed puzzles.
Loved her family, religion, music, and reading.
Always made a big deal of birthdays.
Definitely will be missed by everyone who knew and loved her.
Young at heart and always ready to party.
Summers at her cottage on Bass Lake were most memorable!

Thank you for all the memories. I love you and will miss you.

“ So many great memories of Grandma Gladys. Thank you for always welcoming me and accepting me into your family. Future family gatherings will never be the same without you telling me, “Thanks for the hug Mike. Now go get grandma and you a Bud Light!” I will also miss her FB messages to me telling me she just loves the new Aflac commercial and how much they make her laugh. Cheers to you Grandma.

“ What will the future be like with the patriarch of the family gone? It’s hard to imagine. Like the ending of a novel, there are no more chapters to be read. The story of this family, like others, is one of strife and joy; individual struggles, and untimely passings. There’s a finality to my mother’s passing as she was its central character. She always provided for us kids and often worked multiple jobs to make ends meet. I remember early morning drives in the Lemans to Grandma’s: Grandma would care for me while mom worked. This drive and tenacity she instilled in me continue to serve me well. She was a woman who wasn’t afraid. She learned piano later in life and completed her Associate’s Degree after most people would have called it quits. Her will to fight, to continue to climb should be an inspiration to us all. She thought of others. How many of us have received something from one of her catalogs? The last thing she sent me was a t-shirt that says, “Mom didn’t raise no dummy and if she did it was my brother.” She never forgot a birthday. She gave us memories. Who can forget all the fun we had at Hubbard Lake. She loved her music. I remember a Meat Loaf concert when I was 11(?) and her singing Ave Maria. She took me to church kicking and screaming. She fought constantly to provide a normal life absent a father’s presence. All-in-all, I’m a better person due to her influence. Thank you, mom.

“ They are all together again, Mom, Dad, Nelson, Gordon and Doris Jean. As a teen she took my sister, brother along with Kim and Bruce to the movie theatre. I will not forget the time she took us to Sundusky, Oh and stayed until the amusement park closed. We were on our way home and had been on the interstate for awhile when she realized she had been going the wrong way!

Esther - January 03 at 07:53 PM

“ Love the story about going to the amusement park and getting lost. Good memory Esther!
