“ Rosie and family, so sorry to hear about Tom passing. Bob and I were just talking about him a week or so ago. The camping trip were we had to stop on the way home. Winds were so bad it was lifting the camper right off the truck. Many happy memories. Know that all of you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Our best friend has left us, and is in a better place, we will greatly miss him. Our most loving memory is the trips to Disney World, camping, and friends around the fire. Most of all telling Kathy ,when she was Pregnant she looked like a 39 nash, or the the great punkin, or a cracker barrel without crackers. We loved that man.
