

Adam W. White

September 21, 1982 - September 4, 2023

Adam W. White, age 40, passed away on September 4, 2023. He was born on September 21, 1982 in Flint.

Adam led an interesting life. He traveled the country for 10 years, and met interesting people while hitchhiking, such as Arnold Palmer. He lived in the Everglades, was a member of a co-op in the West, swam the Rio Grande, learned building skills, such as roofing. He picked up many crafts such as drawing, crocheting, quilting, and making hats, and sold his wares at festivals. He learned to run a backhoe, he helped his mom build a patio with firepit, he enjoyed gardening, making jewelry, making people laugh, and feeding the homeless. He also enjoyed coin collecting, being a Chef, husband and step-father.

He is survived by his wife, Kellie A. White of Flint, step-children; Leonard, Maxwell, Chris, Preston, Kellie Anne and Kyle, mother and step-father, Leona (White) and Danny T. Sawdon, Sr. of Port Huron, mother-in-law, Goldie Estanna Pollard and father-in-law, Roland Bruce Pollard, Jr.

Adam was preceded in death by his father, Donald White, and his brother, Alexander White.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Arrangements in care of Jowett Funeral Home - Port Huron.

“ Adam chose his words carefully. He'd say, "Just breathe, Mom", whenever I began panicking. I'll keep a smiling picture of Adam near until we meet again.
