

Adeline M. Miller

February 24, 1930 - September 24, 2022

Adeline M. "Addie" Miller, age 92, of Richmond, formerly of Warren, passed away on September 24, 2022, with her family by her side. She was born on February 24, 1930, in Detroit, to the late Frank and Augusta Van Goethem. Adeline was a blessing to anyone that had the opportunity to meet her. She had always said that she would like to be remembered simply as a loving, giving, and caring person. This was evident in the way she carried herself in her everyday life. She was a devout Lutheran, and always found strength in faith and prayer. She was a very hard - working woman, who would do anything to provide for her family. The proudest moment in her life was becoming a mother to her three sons. She enjoyed gardening, reading, visiting the hair salon, and spending time with or talking on the phone with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She truly enjoyed the close friendships she maintained, and she kept in touch often with her friends. Adeline was also very fond of animals, and she certainly found so much joy in the dogs and cats that she loved in her life. In Adeline's own sweet words, she felt that she had lived a very meaningful life, where she touched the lives of others. She was prepared to meet God and her loved ones that predeceased her, and to "walk in the garden of love."

She is survived by her three children; Daniel (Dawn) Miller, Kris (Rosemary) Miller, and Derek (Jennifer) Miller, nine grandchildren; Patricia (Joshua) Baade, Christina (James) Buskirk, Brianna Miller, Eric (Grace) Miller, Megan

Miller, Jackson Miller, Alena Miller, Houston Miller, Nick (Ashley) Maniex, four great grandchildren; Alyssa Baade, Adam Baade, James Buskirk, and Jack Buskirk, sisters-in-law, Betty Van Goethem and Glenda Van Goethem, brother-in-law, Dalyn Bloom, as well as many cousins, nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her siblings; Don Van Goethem, Judy Bloom, Marie (Cyril) DeBlock, Helen (Sam) Kinsora, and Ray Van Goethem.

A private family service will be held at a later date.

“ Grandma,

Nothing could ever prepare any of us for this moment. No matter how many times I remind myself how short life is. You were the most wonderful woman in the whole world. From the moment I was born, you and I had a bond no one would ever understand. You had 3 sons. I was your first girl, and you never left my side. You worked such long days, and you would come over after work to see me from day one. Remember on Halloween when you came over dressed as a ghost, and I was terrified!? You took us girls shopping all the time, and always made us feel so loved. When I met Josh, you adored him. He was so special to you from the day I was so excited to introduce him to you. And when you found out we were getting married, the tears were rolling. You always cried happy tears. You made sure to get to the store and buy us all of our dish sets and all of our fine China. Every last piece of it. And we will think about you every day when we sit down to have a meal, and every special holiday that we all spend together using our special China. You were so proud of me when I became a nurse. We always talked on the phone for hours. I still remember telling you I was pregnant. You were overcome with joy. And "GiGi" meeting Alyssa and Adam for the first time are memories that we will cherish forever. And when you found out Christina and Jimmy were getting married, you were so happy and proud to see your family continue to grow. And the joy you had meeting James and Jack was so special. You were so proud of your children, Kris (Rosemary), Derek (Jennifer), and Dan (Dawn), your 9 grandchildren, Tricia (Josh), Christina (Jimmy), Brianna, Eric (Grace), Megan, Jackson, Alena, Houston, and Nick (Ashley), and your 4 great-grandchildren, Alyssa, Adam, James, and Jack. I promise to live a life that will make you proud. Please watch over us and keep us safe. You have always had such a strong faith. You have had so many hard times in your life. But you prayed every day. You prayed for all of us. You taught us to have faith in God, and about the power of prayer. You also taught me that your integrity is the most important thing you can have. I will always remember that. You're with God now in Heaven, and no longer suffering. We miss you. We love you. We could never thank you enough for all your love, and all that you have done for us in our lives. You raised 3 beautiful boys, and you did an amazing job. I know you worry about them. I promise to make sure they're okay. I had the honor of sitting with you about 10 years ago, where you told me stories about your life. From when you were a little girl, to having children of your own, and all the things you've done, accomplished, and been through. I wrote it all down. I'm going to read it today, and share it with our family. And read it every time I need a little reminder that everything will be okay. I found these pictures. I'm balling my eyes out. Look how beautiful you are. Please watch over your sons, they miss their mom. We love you, Grandma.
