

Albert A. Boscaglia

November 20, 1931 - November 4, 2023

Albert "Al" Boscaglia, age 91 (16 days shy of 92), of Florida and Mount Clemens, passed peacefully on Saturday, November 4, 2023. He was born on November 20, 1931, in Sandy Hook, Connecticut to the late Alberico and Maria (Lombardi) Boscaglia.

Al was a founding member of the Bearing Burner Car Club. He enjoyed cars and had several classic vehicles over the years, including, 1930 Model A, 1941 Ford convertible, 1937 Buick, 1955 Ford truck and 1937 Oldsmobile to name a few. Like his parents, who owned a nursery on 15 Mile Road, Al in his 90's continued to pride himself with a manicured lawn and perfectly trimmed landscaping. An ideal neighbor. He was an Army veteran who proudly served our country during the Korean War. A lover of Chi-Chi's margaritas and Moscato wine, Al would indulge in a cocktail every afternoon at 4:00, followed by dinner, accompanied by music curated by his Google Home.

Al is survived by his children; Albert "Alan" Boscaglia and Kay (Paul) Szymanski, grandchildren; Paul (Natalie) Szymanski, Paige (Charles) Szymanski and Brooke (Blake) Szymanski-Bogart, his beloved canine buddy and companion, Miss Lily, sister, Clara Gasloli.

Al was preceded in death by his wife of 31 years, Irene (Avendt) Boscaglia, his companion for over 20 years, Barbara Herron, siblings; Nancy Provencher, Joseph Boscaglia, Marino Boscaglia, and Lewis Boscaglia.

He will be forever missed by "Al's harem of dog walkers" in Punta Gorda, Florida.

A funeral mass will be held at 11:30am, Friday November 17, 2023 at St. Peter Church, 95 Market Street, Mount Clemens, Michigan 48043. Visitation will be from 11:00am until time of mass. Father John Maksym will officiate. A private inurnment will be held at Ressurrection Cemetery. The family welcomes donations to St. Mary Catholic School in Mount Clemens. Arrangements in care of Jowett Funeral Home-57737 Gratiot, New Haven.

“ Al & I go back about 70 years of a great friendship together , Al & I used to cruise the streets of Mt. Clemens with our hot cars & check out all gals at the drive in restaurants on Gratiot ave. In the early 80s Al was my super hero to help me rebuild my 47' CC commander , pure perfection of workmanship !!! I sold him my 30 Model A Ford, which later became his pride & joy. May he & Irene cruise from here on the highways of Heaven 🙏🙏 Don K. 😎👍

“ All I can say is that the brothers are back together with their Mother and Father and finally seeing their brothers Joe, Marino and their Sister Nancy. May God bless all of them and know they of course will be a part of me for the rest of my life. Love Aunt Carol. Thank you for all you are doing !!!
