

Allan J. Seeley

August 16, 1958 - March 5, 2022

Allan James Seeley, age 63, of New Haven, passed away on March 5, 2022 after a valiant three year fight against ALS. He died peacefully at home with his wife of 36 years, Paula, at his side.

Allan, with grit and resolve, developed himself as a skilled home builder contributing to the safety and structure of thousands of homes over his lifetime. He utilized his craft to cultivate a resolute work ethic that was gifted to his family.

Allan's favorite days were spent outdoors on the hunt for the biggest buck or the ever-elusive mammoth fish. When he couldn't be outdoors, he enjoyed testing his luck with casino games. Allan's personality was larger than life and could never be ignored even in the largest room.

Allan loved his family quietly but fiercely and will be remembered as a lifelong partner, protective father, playful Papa, and loving son and brother.

Allan's hope was for his legacy to contribute to the comfort and well-being of others diagnosed with ALS. In lieu of flowers, it was Allan's wish that any memorial tributes be made in the form of charitable donations to the ALS Foundation for Life. https://donate.als.org/give/287064/_ga=2.97419871.1344886417.1646666602-199462431.1645304639#!/donation/checkout?c_src=ju “ Going to miss you my friend. They say old hunters never die, they just go deeper in the woods. Rest easy big Al.
