“ Amy was a good friend. She always was ready to help me with anything I needed at work for at least 24 years. She knew my kids well and attended their wedding showers and the weddings. Amy had a giving heart. She would spend the night at my house after our late Christmas parties for Pediatric Consultants of Troy. We shared a few meals at my home and enjoyed her company. We talked frequently up until the day before her passing. I pray Amy finds peace and happiness. Her mom and dad will embrace her in heaven. Amy will be missed. RIP. XOXO

“ I am deeply sorry about Amy’s passing. It’s hard to absorb the shock of it . I have known and worked along side Amy since June 1995 there were some really fun times we shared , Amy and Kelly took me to my first concert ever and it was a Christian one that featured Michael W. Smith who was one of her favorites to listen to, Amy also took me and my oldest daughters to a Disney on ice □ show the girls were really young at the time but they both fondly remember. Amy showed me kindness when nobody else did after a life altering accident. Amy and I also shared the love for Jesus and some good food, we would look forward to the luncheons at work, wondering what was gonna be served. She has been seated at the banquet table in heaven with Jesus now and she is perfectly comfortable and pain free. Amy is forever 21. I look forward to seeing her again when it’s time for Jesus to call my name . Please know my prayers are with the Kelly and the family that you are comforted in your grief and feel Gods presence
