“ Amy was my cousin on my dad bills side of the family. Amy will be deeply and sadly missed by everyone that knew her. It truly breaks my heart that I Heather her cousin in Johns creek ga never ever got to tell her goodbye and it really breaks my heart. I feel so sad for her husband Jason and her two boys chandler and Brody and her sister Tammy and her husband Josh and their two boys along with the rest of my dad bills side of the family. My relatives on that side of the family . It's not far my cousin Amy was only 44 years old. Way to young. May she rest in peace with the lord and savior and her uncle bill and her mom sally and her dad Denny . Along with her uncle Gary . And my grandpa and grandma Thielman.

I m always going to miss my cousin Amy . I can remember all of the great times we've had together on Christmas Eve . Especially when my cousin Amy was young and so was Tammy . I'm thinking about Tammy and her husband Josh and their two boys as well as Amy's husband Jason and her two boys chandler and Brody . It doesn't seem fair that my cousin died way to young and I Heather have outlived her. God told you Amy it's okay you can go now because your physical pain is over with and you can rest now up in heaven with me . My cousin Amy is with her uncle bill and her mom my aunt sally and uncle Denny her dad . And she's also with our uncle Bob. I just wished that I got to say goodbye
