“ Aunt Annis was an inspiration! She was kind and thoughtful to everyone. When I was 10 and my sister was 8 our mom died. I will never forget how she took two sad little girls into her home for a few days after mom died. She always had a clean warm home for us! When our dad had to go back to work, she made sure we got on her bus to go to Grandma Parrish's! Love you Auntie

“ *Nana Do,
You were my very best friend since birth. You showed me what unconditional love was, what grace was, and how to overcome the worst hurts and heartaches. I have memories upon memories from childhood to adulthood of playing Yahtzee, Scrabble, and Euchere. Learning how to sew, how to read, and how to throw shoes! You were have always been my safe place and my safe person. I love you with all of my heart and I Thank God for the 41 years that I had you. You were amazing and meant so much to so many people. You will Always Be My SuperHero. I Love You 3000*

“ Aunt Annis and Uncle Pat have been there for me since I was a teenager. I stayed with them during my senior year in 1960. It is hard to believe she is no longer with us. It does relieve me to know she is no longer suffering and she is and pain free and whole again. I love you, Aunt Annis and my thoughts and prayers go out to your family. You will be missed and loved forever.

Your niece, Sandy McDonald.

“ Annis was named after my mother, her aunt, Annis Scheible. I will cherish so many memories of family reunions and family get-togethers. I will remember her and Pat’s Chicago visit with all of the craziness and fun.Her laugh was contagious. Her wit was sharp. Her love and caring was boundless. How she coped with life’s challenges was an example to all. My parents adored her as did I. Please tell them hello for me dear cousin. I will miss you very much.
