“ I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Uncle Tony. He was always one of my favorites. One of my fondest memories as a little girl was going to the many Sanders weddings, and with so many Sanders boys there were plenty of them. It was at those weddings that my uncles taught me to dance. I always considered Uncle Tony to be the best dancer of them all. His two step was something to behold. So very smooth.

I will remember him always and keep him and your family in my prayers.

Your cousin

Daughter of Ray and Mary*
