“ Such a wonderful woman always treated me and my brother Scott like one of her grandchildren. She didn't mind us calling her Grandma Arlene. We always would spend Christmas with Grandma Arlene and Grandpa Larry in Brighton. She was the best grandma you could ask for and she will be missed so much. I hated to watch her go but knowing she isn't suffering and is with Grandpa Larry makes me feel better. Love and miss you Grandma Arlene

*Love,
Michael Glisson*

Arlene was my mother's neighbor on quinkert street for many years. It was always nice seeing her and chatting on the front porches with a cup of coffee. She was a good support for my mother when she was sick with cancer. Rest in peace Arlene..
