“ I know we might have not talked a lot but I miss you a lot. I remember when we were playing on the play ground joking around while doing our work in school, and playing football with you and you would always tackle me and I would pat you on the back and say “Your too good” I miss having fun with you. You being my best friend was the best thing I could’ve asked for. If I had to say one last thing I would say I love you. Your kindness to me and your love for others meant so much to me. I would get pushed around called names, and you were there to make me feel better. Yes we were in 1st grade but I will never forget the fact that I loved being your best friend. - Sam Stanley
