“ there was never a time that when we talked that we didn't laugh like crazy...we would call each other to check in and she always called my house Peyton Place....there was always something going on,,,kids sick dr. appts..etc. I am going to miss her so very much....the last time she went to the hospital I went in the ambulance with her...I wasn't about to let her go alone and I stayed by her side .....I loved her like my own mother....she always knew how to cheer me up...I wish I could have known she was in the hospital so that I could have held her hand one more time and kissed her goodbye...I love ya Ma.....my life was so much better because of you....love you forever.....Wendy...aka AL
