“ Grandpa I never expected you would leave us so soon, but I am so glad we have been able to spend so much time together in last several years. While I know you have been a very ill man recently I can only view you in my mind as very strong man for all the care you gave grandma over the last 5 years and all you have been through yourself with many health problems you have had of your own.

I will always remember many times we spent together up north, like when we would go on bike rides and you would ride your green schwinn bike aka "green bean". Or the many times we went to lunch at Coney Island; one of our favorite places.

While I am glad to see your suffering end, I am so sad to see you go. We love you dearly and I know now you can be at peace with Gram. RIP Gramps I love you.

“ Dad,
It all happen so fast we are in shock. I miss you so much and your great sense of humor. You were a wonderful father. You took time with me when i was growing up we always went camping, you came to all my band concerts, the bike rides, fishing and much much more. I love you and you were the definition of what a father should be. No more suffering. Rip father. Love you! Your daughter Cherie

Cousin George, you have gone to rest in the arms of Jesus our Lord and Savior. I know you are with the rest of the family now and rejoicing that you now are not in pain or suffering. I still have all the great memories of growing up with you and all the Christmas cards that Carol and I used to send trying to keep caught up with our families. Now I am in touch with Cherie and she and I will try to keep caught up with what I have missed. Glad you got to see the card I sent you and that you got to see what I looked like now and got to see the updated house of Grandma and Grandpa De St. Aubin's. Please tell everyone hello for me and let Grandpa and Grandma know how their earthly house is beautiful. You and Carol will be missed by Cherie and Terry, me and other family members. Love You and Carol, you both will live on in my memories. Love you, your cousin Carol Rose.
