“ So sorry for your loss. She became a wonderful friend to my father, George Doolittle. And he has been worrying all week about finding her family to pay his respects. Prayers and peace for the family.

“ Barb had been attending our church for the past few months. I had the great opportunity to meet with her for lunch a few weeks back. She told me all about her love for the Lord, and how by His strength she overcame a lot of very difficult challenges. I was so encouraged by her kind demeanor, her excitement to be involved in the church, and her testimony. I did not know Barb a long time, but I do know that her relationship with God was very strong in her last few months. I was able to pray with Barb, and other pastors at our church have recently prayed with Barb as well. In retrospect it is as if she was preparing to meet Jesus. Barb will be greatly missed!

“ My long time friend whom I truly Love. I wish I could have spent more time with you. I am happy for all the time we did have together. Going to miss you. According to the word of God. "To live is Christ and to die is gain" I know you are with Jesus now in paradise where there is no more struggle. I hope we will see each other again in our Heavenly home. Your friend Sandy.
