“ I would have been at her funeral, but I didn't read of her passing till after I loved Barb. I grew up two houses away, and she was the sweetest lady ever she would invite me inside her home and give me treats as child. As an adult I worked at Kroger and she was my regular customer and we talked all the time sometimes about the good old days when Guy was still alive, and I still had that red hair. She was a special lady and I will miss her so much Guy, and the boys were lucky to have had her. My condolences to the family I remember all of you, and I feel your loss.
