“ My deepest condolences go out to Barb's family. I only knew Barb for about 2 yrs, she was my brother Harold Ganaway's neighbor. Shortly after I moved into the park, Harold asked me if I would help Barb out with her household chores. Well, that is what I did for about 16 months, After I cleaned up her place, we would sit and chat, we had some good conversations and a lot of laughs. She was a kind spirited awesome and strong willed lady, no matter what she was dealt, she still kept her sense of humor and acted like nothing was wrong. She always talked about Harold and his wife Debi, and what great neighbors and friends they were. I was sad to hear that her fight was over, but I'm glad that she isn't in any pain any more and she is with her husband right now, happy and pain free! Rest in Peace Barb, you will be greatly missed, but I know that you are looking over everyone and smiling like you always did. Love & Miss You, Colleen Grove
