“ So very sorry to hear of your loss. Jeremy and my oldest, Krista were only a couple of months apart and we spent time with play dates. I love remembering "club" where we would get together with Sandy Varty, Pat Belair and Linda Freeman planning to play cards. We spent most of the evenings talking about our kids and drinking too much Pepsi! I wish I could be there to share memories, but please know I will be praying for you.

“ My sympathy to the family. I remember Barb when she was a little girl since we lived just three doors down. Sometimes she would come and play with my sister, Helen Jean. But the one I remember most was Bobbie as he would come to the door and ask "can Mr. Wilson come out to play with me?" Bobbie also would pick up stones from our driveway and then sell them to my dad for a penny! My dad bought some of those same stones several times. May your memories of Barb bring you comfort and peace now and in the days to come. Mary Jo (Wilson) Krauth

Thank you for sharing! I haven't heard many of the stories outside of my mom's perspective.

“ I remember going with my mom to see Barb when she worked for the bank. I always admired the way she held herself and how professional she looked. She was a role model for young women then and I looked up to her as an independent working woman. That is how I will remember Barb.

Thank you Rhonda! She loved working at the bank. I'm not sure how many people enjoy her job as much as she did. She remembered so many of the people she helped there.
