“ I worked with Bart, so I have many memories, bart was witty, smart and funny all while we were working midnights, afternoons, and days during our 30 year stint. Downtown on midnights, eastern market on afternoons and sweeping on days, never a dull moment with Bart. He is missed and the world lost a wonderful man, God he will make you laugh so enjoy him as much as we did, love you Bart!

“ Bart could match the singing voice of dozens of artists. Karaoke audience members would often turn their heads to see if the real artist was at the microphone when he was singing. Over the years, he brought dozens of people together to share his love of karaoke. That was his gift ... and he gave it freely to all who listened.

“ Bart was a dear soul with such a big heart and thirst for fun. He had a voice for singing that could have gone professional. The last time Mike and I spent time with Bonnie and Bart was a few weeks ago at his favorite karaoke bar surrounded by friends, family and all the people he loved. Not only will you be resting in peace dear Bart, but you will now be singing with the angels
