“ So many memories from childhood to adult-forever my best friend, the fun we had. The many hours of laughter, the many teenage tears. The hours of personal talks. Our movies, (with pickled bologna,cheese and mt dew) our first apartment together, college years and raising our first born together. . God couldn't of given me a better person to grow up with. Love and miss you friend. See you in heaven.

“ I have so many memories.. But, the one sticks out the most is every Saturday morning we sit in that big, ugly, soft green chair in my moms house and watch cartoons all morning. She was always a hero to me even though we drifted apart. I love you Belinda you are always loved and will be truly missed!

“ When we were in High School, I used to walk all the way to her house before school. Some of my favorite school memories are those mornings & afternoons interacting with Belinda and her mom & sister. She had one of the best smiles & laughs ever.

“ My sister, Belinda, is my best friend. Although we grew up and had families, we remained best friends. In school, we hung with different crowds, we had different taste in men, clothes, and ideas for our future but when we talked, we often said the same thing at the same time and knew what one another was thinking. Belin told me it was ok to drive with the air on and windows down, she came w/me on my crazy, last minute decisions to do things together, we were each others sounding board, and our kids grew up together. She is the best. RIP sis, I'll see you again.
