“ Miss you I'll never forget the time I bought you a Superman shirt for your birthday and you called me and told me you were jumping off furniture wearing it lol. I remember spending hours on the phone with you as kids. Even though you were a boy you were my best friend. All my friends had crushes on you and you really were such a beautiful soul. My heart hurts and I don't want to believe you are really gone. Kristy

“ You were my first best friend. I remember when we met at five years old. I was riding my bike past your house on Midland and you said "hey." That's all it took and we were playing every day. I'll never have another friend like you. I'll miss you every day. I'm so sorry for your loss Janet, Bernie, Courtney, and Angela.

“ I met Bernard 10 give or take years ago working at SMR. Couldn't really explain why but instantly we were always together. He was like my little brother. The weirdest thing is even looks just like my actual brother. And anyone that knew us and was around we argued like brother and sister. I'm really going to miss him. But I know in his way he's still here.

“ We ( my brother and I) knew the Raymond's from growing up on the same street as young kids. We all would ride bikes and play together.

We are so sorry to hear of the passing of BJ.

Our many thoughts and condolences go out during this difficult time.

“ You were the rarest of souls this earth has known. Your absence will be felt for years to come. You changed my life the day you walked into it, and I am forever grateful for the love and time shared with you. You are missed so very much. If love could have saved you, you would have lived forever. So many people were blessed to have you in their life. I love you so much. I know one day I will see you again. Until then, I know you will be watching over all of us, at least we can find some peace in that. Fly high baby. I know you are now at peace and are free.

“ I knew Bernard only a short time. We had the chance to work together laying hot asphalt in 2020. He was a good shovel man and a pleasure to be around. He will be missed. My thoughts and prayers for the family especially Janet. ”
