“ dear family,i am writting this letter because i trulu am sorry for your loss. i remember "boots' as my teacher's aide in knidergarten at the thornton school. i especially remeber her punishing me because i knew who santa clause was and she didn't want me to ruin it for the other kids. well. her claim to fame. was when we were shopping at the old sears building, in the bathroom wahing our hands, and she saw me in the mirror and called me "mary louise" i never use my middle name but there were many mary'sin our classroom, and she and mrs.lester used our middle names to distinguish us. well. i've chattered long enough
, and my prayers are with you all at this fragile time. love ya all,

“ Dear Ken and Kay, So Sorry to hear of the loss of a very prominent member of your family. It's hard to loose the people we love and care for. Kay you've been through this so you will be a great help to Ken. Ken mom's are very special. I lost my mom in March of this year so all those emotions are right up there at the top where I'm sure they will be for you for the next while. Ken, you and kay and your girls are in my thoughts and prayers from afar. Sorry I'm not able to make it up. Take care of each other. Money
