

Bonnie J. Kozak

June 20, 1947 - December 12, 2021

Bonnie J. Kozak, age 74, of Ray Township, passed away on December 12, 2021. She was born on June 20, 1947, in Mount Clemens, Michigan to the late Stanley and Falba Trombley.

She was a strong minded woman. She worked at Emhart for 35 years, where she was considered a very hard worker. She loved painting ceramics, playing Bingo, Conway Twitty and loved her many, many, many family trips to Soaring Eagle. What brought her the most joy to her heart, was the holiday gatherings, when she would prepare for days, so her family would have a wonderful meal. She was an amazing mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and sister. She is already missed by so many.

Bonnie is survived by her daughters; Angela (Joseph) Cope and Cheri (Matt) Isaacs, son, Fred (Yvette) Vaden, step-children; Pamela (Rich) Ryszawa, Karen (Curtis) Turner, Kevin (Rosemeiry) Kozak, grandchildren; Bryan (April) Vaden, Andrea (Michael) Haynes, Charles Dunlap, Matthew (Alisha) Isaacs, Chelsea (Timothy) Mrosewske, Raven Martiny, Tayla Vaden, Nicholas Ryszawa, Alex Ryszawa, Megan Turner, great-grandchildren; Lucas Isaacs, Porter Isaacs and Mila Mrosewske, along with her sisters; Ada (Jerry) Egan and Judy (Jim) Keibler.

She was preceded in death by husbands; Fred J. Vaden and Robert Kozak, step-son, Jeffrey Kozak, along with brothers; Arthur Trombley and Leslie Trombley.

A private service will be held at a later date.
