“ My Uncle Bruce was a kind and diligent, hard working man who had a good heart, morals and beliefs. He came to the aide and assistance of myself and family members many of times. He rebuilt my 1st car hot rod! A "76" Cutlass! He will be dearly missed and I grieve the loss of yet another one of my Earth Angels. He is Free and Happy now as he has always wanted to be reunited with his parents and loved ones that have passed on prior. Honored Knight you have entered into your Sainthood! Amen Rest In Peace my Dear Beloved Uncle and Patron of our Family. ~Love Always your Nieces ~ Sheila, Desirea and AleSandra

Sheila!!.....WOW....

.....WOW!!! Soooooooo GLAD he did that for YOU!!! AS HE WAS NEVER THERE FOR HIS ACTUAL OWN DAUGHTER!!!!!! Not to mention beat his own Mother while on oxygen and beat his Daughters Mother multiple times!!!!!! Then left his little bit of life Insurance to YOU instead of his own Daughter after he told her, he was going to leave it to her a.k.a. me. He didn't pay A PENNY of child support...EVER, but always had money for booze, drugs, and cigarettes!!!(which ended up killing him... COPD complications!!). REALITY FACT He could NOT HOLD a job!!!!!!!!!!!! So I'm not sure what you are talking about at all in your statement! That being said, may he rest in peace, cause he sure didn't try to promote peace or allow peace for most when he was on this earth! Amen. And as for being happy to be reunited with his parents?? I don't know what you're talking about there either, because his father used to beat him with a belt!!!!!! His mother Mary was great, however he chose to physically abuse her!!!!!! Sorry. But, if you're going to write something, write the truth!!! Sincerely, his DAUGHTER Tina! Oh, and I like how his son a.k.a. my brother, Clint was not mentioned in the obituary that I think was wrote by yourself. So thank you for that. (I'm being facetious, of course). You can look up facetious as I'm sure you don't know what it means.
