“ I am so sad to hear of Cal's passing. He was a good man with a good heart and always found a way to make me laugh. I remember I needed to go home to visit my dad in Colorado but couldn't afford plane tickets for me and my kids, without blinking an eye Cal let me take his motor home. Was one of the best trips ever. RIP.....Calvin Brindal..... You will be missed

“ Cal and Cheryl were living in New Baltimore. I stopped by and Cal was rebuilding a porch. I asked him if he needed any help. He said no, just sit down and have a beer. So we were BSing and the next thing I know is Cal is kicking back drinking a beer and I am rebuilding the porch. To this day, don't know how it happened.

“ My favorite memory of Cal. Is when we went out to his house in Arizona cause his mom wasn't doing well. He took me for a ride in his corvette. Showed me how fast it could go. Fastest I have ever been. And took me up in the mountains to see the lights of his city below. He showed me there was good guys when bad ones were treating you no so good. RIP Cal. I will never forget you. Thanks for being there for me when I needed you.
