“ I always enjoyed being up north with my grandmother. She loved to go fishing at all the lakes up north. I can remember times i went with her. We would catch a all kinds of fish. We spent lots of time together at her old cabin in Harrison and in glennie. Its hard to believe she is gone. I will always remember and love her. R.I.P. Grandma Destaubin i love you very much!

“ I also have many wonderful memories!! Aunt Carol and I were always close. Mom babysat for her kids until I was old enough to babysit and then I took over. Cherie returned the favor by babysitting my kids. Aunt Carol use to take us bottle hunting in her VW beetle. Bottles and cans were only .02 back then. She also took me to the Sparta Rodeo when I was 14. My first time ever going to a rodeo. We camped there. I also enjoyed helping her do her laundry. She had an old ringer washer. I thought it was fun watching the clothes going through the ringer. Then we would hang them outside on the line. She would always compliment me when she seen me. I loved her and she will be deeply missed. Love you aunt Carol!! Forever in my heart!!

“ There are so many wonderful memories I can say about my grandmother, Carol. It is so hard to pinpoint only just one. As a child I always looked forward to spending any time I could with her at her house, and I especially loved when she would pick me up and we would go up north together...but that is only a small fraction of the many things we have done together..above all I will never forget the love and patience she always showed me, and even though I didnt know it then; she was always quietly teaching me life lessons that I will never forget. I am so privileged to have been in her life and I know she is already greatly missed. Rest in Peace Gram.

I know you will her so much. I remember her teaching me how to make cookies and I loved spending time with her. And I remember when Terry was born and I helped teach him to walk. AND cherie was her wonderful daughter. She was so patience with all kids.. God has taken an angle home. RIP AUNT CAROL .
