“ Dear Robin, Jodi, LeeAnn, and family, I was sorry to hear about the loss of your mother. I'm also sorry I couldn't have been there in person to express my sympathy and give you all a hug. I'll always remember the good times and laughs I shared with your mother. I smile as I think about her and the good old days. I wish you all peace and love.

God Bless, Love Nick Cavis

“ To all the family, I am sorry that I had not been able to visit Aunt Carole but I miss her very much. She is in my prayers as all of you are. I am on a Relay for Life team that raises money for the American Cancer Society and will purchasing a Luminaria that will be lite in memory of Aunt Carole. I will also do the same for my mom and Edward. It is a very emotional and beautiful time when everyones name is read in honor or in memory of them. This will be happening 5-31 at 9:30 pm. I would like everyone to take a moment at 9:30 to think of Carole, mom, Edward and any one else that has cancer or has passed from cancer. I miss you al. I Love Always form

“ I am so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. She was truly a remarkable woman who fought the battle hard with the help and support of her family. I so admired her strength. I will miss her. You, her family, are in my prayers. I would like to share the following words that brought comfort to me when my mom passed, in the hopes it will comfort you.

"I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love." author: Leo Buscaglia

“ Robin, Kim, Jodi, Rusty, LeeAnn and all family members and friends.

Mere words alone can not convey my deepest and most heartfelt condolences with supreme sorrow and sadness during this tragic time and loss in all of our lives.

May we somehow rest in peace and have some solace in knowing that Carol is once again reunited with family members and loved ones and is in the arms of God.

I'm so sorry for yours and our loss.....

Love you all,

Tom Howard
