I've known you my whole life and we may have split up and went in our own decisions you have and always will be my sister you will be deeply missed but never forgotten

Your in heaven now with all our loved ones that god called home too soon . But I've always heard and believe til this day that god calls the good ones home because he needs angles to watch over us down here in this hell you no longer have to live in

He took all your pain away and made you the angel you were meant to be

Rip. My friend give brothers Donnie and Butch and hug and tell them I love them and miss please
