“ We moved next door to Carolyn and Fred in St. Thomas in 1977. She welcomed us with a freshly baked cake. She and Fred were good neighbors until she moved to Michigan a few years ago. So sorry to hear of her passing.

“ Even though it has been years ago I have vivid memories of the times I spent with Carolyn and her twin sister, Marilyn on their family farm as we played in the barn together. After both of us getting older and moving out of the state of Michigan we lost touch with each other so it was very enjoyable to see her at one of the cousins reunion after she moved back to Port Huron. Prayers for her family during this sad time.
