“ The rock to my foundation! It may be missing an important piece, but she taught me to be strong and fill the void as I need. 3 smaller blocks have filled that void. The foundation is solid.

Cathy Silver, was beyond just a nice person. She was polite and lovable, I met Cathy years ago when she lived with her parents on Wright st. A very special friend, she will be missed. And yes, Cat, I think of you every day 11:11. My deepest sympathy to the family.

Cat you will be missed by so many people who had the honor of being your friend. I as so glad we became friends in the late 90's at VM, because you were such a fun person to be around, and also a faithful and great friend. Our condolences go out to Derek and Jimmy and the rest of your extended family. Now you are back with Dave, your mom and all the rest of your family who were gone before you. RIP, we love you
