“ When my oldest was an infant, I took her to the back of the church to change her diaper in the restrooms. I didn't realize she needed a change of clothes as well, and was trying to decide what I should do because I just had a baby in a diaper, and I didn't want to take her outside to come in through the back of the church, and I surely didn't want to walk through the front of the church to grab her diaper bag. All of a sudden, I heard foot steps coming down the hall, and there was Cecil, and he came into the bathroom and made sure she was safe on the changing table while I ran and got her a change of clothes. He was all smiles to do that for me. I'll never forget his big smile and how welcomed he always made me feel!

“ For the Radford family on Wildcat Rd., I don't recall ever having another mailman but Cecil Harrison. He was like clockwork w/ his mail delivery. Also remember playing many baseball games w/ the Harrison's. They were/are known throughout the township as a wonderful Christian family. I remember Jim Harrison (Cecil's son) the most, because he was my age and we were classmates throughout school. Condolences to the entire Harrison family.

“ Cecil was one of the last of a great generation of people around the Jeddo area. We will never have another group of parents who all got along and always put volunteering for the community ahead of their own interests. Volunteer could have been Cecil's middle name. I will never forget three years ago when he asked me to go with him to the Silver Trails Scout Camp because he was writing a history of the camp and wanted me to help him with pictures and to just get another look around. He always told me his father Elmer had lived to be 94 and he only wanted to make it to that age! He nearly made it. We have lost a great friend and I will miss talking to him about old times. RIP Cecil.

“ I just remember Uncle as being so welcoming. Always was happy to see you. That great big smile was genuine. I loved the stories he would tell me about the family. Such a comfort when our parents preceded him in passing, and encouraging me when my brother was so badly burned! Man of such strength was my Uncle Cecil.....
