“ I didn't work with your dad very long. When I hired on he retired shortly thereafter. He was a proud man and a cop of honor. I was blessed to have had lunch and coffee with Charlie. He enjoyed my wedding photos and talked so much about his wife, daughter and his grandchild. He said there was no other joy than having a grandchild and his daughter who moved so close to him. He loved his family so much and missed his wife horribly. He spoke of regrets of not taking more vacations while working and asked me to promise that Frank and I would take many vacations together and not wait. I am so sorry for the loss of your dad and your mom years ago. I hope he is holding her in his arms and smiling down on you.

The memories will help you get through the really rough days. Hold onto those and know he loves you very much
