

Mr. Charles Edward "Chuck" Goubert

August 15, 1939 - October 13, 2019

Charles Edward "Chuck" Goubert, 80, of Lexington, passed away on October 13, 2019 in his home after a short illness with his family by his side.

He was born on August 15, 1939 in Detroit, son of the late Jules and Marie Goubert.

Charles married Nancy Malloy on September 25, 1990 in Lake Tahoe, California.

He enjoyed gardening, gambling and going to estate sales. Chuck will be greatly missed by his loving wife and extended family.

He is survived by his wife, Nancy Malloy of Lexington; son, Chuck Goubert Jr. of Lexington; son and daughter-in-law, Joseph (Stephanie) Goubert of Memphis; grandchildren: Amy (Maurice), Erin (Andy), Caitlin (Nicholas), Rachel and Daniel; several great-grandchildren; sister, Adele Colagiovanni of Clinton Twp.; sister, Marie Goubert of Shelby Twp.; and a sister, Nancy Schultz of Clinton Twp. and several nieces and nephews.

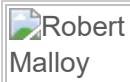

Chuck was preceded in death by his first wife, Joanne Goubert and an infant son, Jon.

A Celebration of his Life will be held at a later date. Cremation arrangements are in care of Jowett Funeral Home, 1634 Lapeer Ave., Port Huron.

Memorial tributes may be made to the Wishes of the family.

“ Uncle Chuck will be missed by everyone, but especially by his many nieces, who he has treated like family since the moment he fell for our Aunt/second mom/older sister, Nancy. I can't imagine a better fit for the Malloy crew. Thanks Aunt Nancy for bringing him into our lives. I have many memories of Uncle Chuck, but our epic trip to Ireland has to be most special. RIP Uncle Chuck.

“ I would like to echo my sister Patty’s comments about our brother-in-law Chuck whom I gave the endearing nickname, Chuckles. I enjoyed many great times with him and my sister Nancy over the 29 years they were married. I will miss him deeply. May the love of our family and friends bring comfort to my sister during these difficult days.
