“ My papa was the only man figure in my life as a child my only father figure if you will as my biological father was never in my life. That said he made every holiday beautiful as child and Halloween was my favorite time of the year and he would take me out every single Halloween trick or treating even on crutches when he endured a very painful accident and injuries. He still loved me so much that he made it possible every year and I'd dress up and get tons of candy and watch scary movies afterwards! Of course he'd check my candy over to assure it's safe and I cherish my childhood memories and he has a very special place inside my heart ❤️ forever and always! Till we meet again I know that I have an angel up there watching over me here throughout my journey here .. I remember going on the boat with both my grandparents and going & the camp ground ! My memories are precious and he was a blessing in my life ! I love you so much I hope you're looking down smiling and seeing this ' !!! God gained one beautiful angel 😊 .... In loving memory your granddaughter Rachel...
