“ So sorry to hear this news. I have fond memories as a young boy of visiting Charlotte and Al, and their Boxer dogs, with my dad in their flat above the Pony Keg. She was a first class Lady, who always had a kind word. I hope the first thing she does is grab Al and play a game of bridge with my parents!

Charlotte came to Barkley Place with Anna Mae while I was employed there. I will never forget her in my swimming group and playing cards, which I dont think she did more than tolerate, as Bridge it was not! What a sharp mind and so funny! When Charlotte moved back north there was a bit of an empty feeling.... Rest in peace dear friend, rest in peace.

“ Charlotte was my oldest sister by 26 years and I have many happy memories of growing up with her always there on holidays, parties at her farm and spending time with her in Florida. I will remember her from the happy times and hope that she is now at peace.

"Charlotte our dear friend. Your mission in life was to take care of Al, AnnaMay and your family. We never heard an unkind word or complaint (maybe a few about some of Al's golf bills) in the thirty years of friendship and bridge partner. You will be missed but your life on earth was well done. We feel very lucky to have shared a part of it."

Charlotte was a very dear friend of my Mom, Kay Salerno, who passed away in 1987 at the young age of 66. Charlotte, Al, my Mom and Dad (Sal Salerno) loved to play bridge and they were even in the catering business together. The Pony Keg was right down the street from where we lived on Lodewyck and my brother, Mike, even worked there while in High School. I'll always remember Charlotte for her keen sense of humor, infectious laugh, kindness and her 2 boxers! May she rest in peace and start up a bridge match in heaven with some dear old friends!

My sincere condolences to the family,
