“ I will miss you, Cheryl. You were such a good friend to me growing up. All through school we held each other's hearts and secrets through some pretty rough times. I loved your laugh and your quirky sense of humor. You had such a kind heart. You always made me feel valued. I will remember all the fun we had. Even though life took us in different directions we still stayed in touch on facebook. I even still have the ceramic unicorn you made me in 6th grade. It hangs on my Christmas tree every year. It's even more precious now. Love you always. 'Till we meet again in Heaven.
