“ I am so sad to hear of Cheyanne's passing. She and her brother and sister were such dear children to me at Woodrow Wilson. May she rest in Peace, Heather may you all heal and find the peace you deserve.

“ Cheyanne was in my classes at Chippewa. I remember her struggling to read but she tried and tried and tried. I had her read poetry at her level to me in reading class. She tried so hard sometimes she would be shaking. She really worked hard in that class. She was a sweet person. I am so very sorry for your loss. I will always remember Cheyanne.
