“ As it turns out, we could not get permission to bury Chirs' ashes in my parents graves and so his ashes are spread over the St. Clair River per his wishes.

“ I will miss him very much (I do already). Even though we were thousands of miles apart I would talk to him all of the time. We did what brothers do, only over the phone. His early passing leaves a big gap!
Now you are with Mom and Dad, brother, whom you were so close to.

“ Been many many years since I last saw Chris, him and I grew up together. He was a good guy, truly a good friend to have. He use to come over too play when I was confined to a hospital bed. I have alot of find memories of him. We use to fish the river, and occasionally seek across to Canada to buy firecrackers. I am saddened by the news of his passing. He is in my thoughts and prayers today. Michael Britz

*Mike,
Thanks for the kind thoughts. Chris remembered you very well and was always going to look you up. He felt about you the same way you feel about him. In later years he talked of you from time to time and would reminisce about his time with you.*

Thanks' Ken, his brother
