“ As I prepare for Christin's Memorial this coming Saturday April 17,2021 it has been almost a year since I last spoke to Christin. I can't even believe the year is gone. I am finding so many beautiful pictures and memories to share with the others who will be mourning the loss of my sister. Christin always worried she needed to be perfect. I told her the last time we chatted that no human is perfect, there is no such thing as a "perfect human being" , we were all trying to cope with what at the time was only about 30 days into the Covid pandemic, no question is dumb and no phone call or text is a bother. I'm glad I was able to comfort Christin that day. I wish this crazy world was not so stressful, not so divided and not so scary so that people who are lacking self confidence could have an easier time. I miss you Christin. I seem to be taking over your anxiety and I sure could use your sisterly advice. Lots of Love, Kimmy

Kim, You can find comfort in the fact that I will never ever forget Christin. We shared a special relationship. I have a picture of me and Christin at the boat races years ago. I am sitting in a chair and she is knelling beside me and she has such a nice smile on her face. I will probably talk to her the rest of my life. Be well. These past 18months or so has taken down the best of us and strongest of us. Miss you, Precious. Renee

“Christin was very close with our Gama (grandmother). Today I was sorting Christin's gift wrapping bins and was given this "God Wink" in such a random place. This one photo of them and the flower says "Have a Nice Day". I don't remember the reason for the photo but I believe it was there to comfort us as we take care of her belongings. Telling us they are happy and having fun together again in Heaven!

“ Our hearts are broken to hear that our beautiful niece has gone to heaven. She was one of the sweetest souls in the world. 💕
Our memories of her will have to carry all of us through until we meet again. We hold dear the memories of Christin at our family picnic's, Christmas and many holidays at grandma and grandpa Anderson's house.
Our best memories of Christin so happy & laughing with her cousin's, Stacy and Joe, at Doug & Julie's cabin. We had long walks in the woods, bonfires, numerous pranks while looking for deer, fun bike rides and three wheeler's for miles and miles.
Rest In Peace, sweet Christin... 🙏

“ There are no words I can even type to express my sympathy right now. The only things I can think of are the amazing memories we had growing up together. Long weekends and summers up north riding 3 wheelers, hiking, and looking for deer. The best Christmases with mounds of presents from Grandma and Grandpa. Sneaking fruit roll ups and chocolate from their pantry. Playing hours of video games and barbies. I love you cousin, always have and always will. I hope you find the peace and happiness you deserve and are looking down on all of us with that beautiful smile. RIP Love Stacy, Mia, Keira, Tessa and Maksym

“Christin has a graceful soul. Each time I saw her she radiated with good energy. I remember playing Barbies together for hours as children. She was so creative with her Barbie “props.” I remember her genius ideas surfacing all throughout our childhood. At the family Cabin in Dublin we would sing ♪♪ together-our favorite ...4 non blondes “What’s Up.” Once, at a sleepover together at her “new house” we looked out the window of her bedroom only to see what we thought were Aliens coming to abduct us. Really we were witnessing the Northern lights together for the first time, having no idea as little children what the heck we were experiencing. She once made a Barbie “waterbed” out of an ice pack. I idealized her creativity and beautiful artistry. I remember she would sketch beautiful pictures, everywhere. She was so talented, her energy would pour out of her wherever she was. This world will surely miss her present energy, but her spirit will be felt and live on through those that knew her. I’m praying that her soul has found peace and for comfort and strength for all her loved ones during this time.

“ How do I say Good Bye to my first childhood friend from Vandover Street??? With wonderful memories I suppose...there isn't a childhood memory without Christin in it and her beautiful family! We spent everyday and many overnights together, playing barbies and Nintendo (bubble bobble and Mario Bro's) for hours, dressing up in Julies beautiful clothes, high heels and jewelry, eating cottage cheese and cool ranch Doritos (that I share with my kids now a days), freezing fruit roll ups, swinging for hours on her swing set, laying on Duke while we watched Nickelodeon, going to church with the Andersons and one time throwing up breadsticks in the first pew...haha oops ate too much. Getting in trouble for hanging out in Kimmy's room. We just wanted to see all the Prince posters;-) Doug would take us four wheeling up north. Taught us together how to shoot a bow and arrow. Swimming in our neighbors pool. Block parties and riding our bikes all day and night!
Christin, I'm so sorry you were in pain. You are in the hands of God now and truly an angel! Please look over me and my family as I pray so much for your family, fiancée and friends during this very difficult time. Love you all Anderson's. Rest In Peace my beautiful friend. I wish I could have thanked you for being my first best friend and giving me all those memories and the happiest childhood!

I'm proud to call you my friend. I love your personality . Respect your unwavering resilience. No one has a bigger heart than you. I wish you saw yourself the way I see you. Awesome and amazing. That's how I think of you. No one tried harder to make their lives better. You gave your all in order to survive. God knew you deserved better than that. He knew you deserved to thrive. The best place for you to do that was next to him. Although our hearts are broken and we will miss you sooo much. There is peace knowing you are pain free and joyful. I'll keep up with your mom.
