

Cindy L. MacAlpine

February 18, 1958 - May 10, 2025

Cindy Lynn MacAlpine, age 67 of Port Huron, was set free from Huntington's Disease on May 10, 2025. She was born to the late Kenneth and Rose (Hubbard) MacAlpine on February 18, 1958.

Cindy graduated from Port Huron High School in 1976. She cherished her family and was her grandkids biggest fan at their sporting events. She enjoyed Bingo, the casino, shell collecting, when she lived in Florida, the Lions and U of M Football. She was co-owner of Chatterbox Restaurant in Marysville.

She is survived by her sons; Jeff MacKay and Jason (Chelli) MacKay, her grandchildren; Phillip (fiance' Jenna Holzberger) MacKay, Alexandria (fiance' Quinton Sanchez) MacKay, PVT Jacob MacKay - Army National Guards, Jay Willingham, Corey Cross and Carter Cross. She is now the guardian angel to a great grandbaby expected in June, Amelia. She is also survived by her MacAlpine siblings; Ty (Kathy) and Debra, her niece and her family, Nicole (Matt), Charlotte (her birthday twin) and Theodore Romito. She is also survived by her Hubbard aunts and cousins, as well as many friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her nephew, Tyler MacAlpine and her Hubbard grandparents, aunts and uncles.

The family extends their heartfelt gratitude to Cindy's "Marwood Family" and Harmony Hospice.

Graveside services and interment will take place on Friday, July 18, 2025 at 11:00am at Christian Memorial Gardens East - 255 W. Sheridan Line Road, Peck. A Celebration of Life will follow from 1:00pm - 4:00pm in the Fraternal Order of Eagle - 2654 Howard St., Port Huron.

Memorial contributions can be made to Jeff MacKay for the wishes of the family.

Jowett Funeral Home is privileged to serve the MacAlpine Family.
