“ To The Lavery Family:

Sister Clare was apart of the Collier-Meadows Family. She bought joy and laughter whenever she was around. I will always remember her and my father, Pastor John, discussing that I was ready for ministry after they both had sat in a Bible Study that I had taught. Later God allowed me to experience her grace and elegance at a memorable luncheon she provided for my mom and I. The conversation was about us living without our husbands. We all laughed because of course we had plenty to say about them doing all the wrong things, but yet we would have given anything to have all three men in person at the table with us.

We were Blessed to have Sister Clare in our life. My prayers are with you.

*Love, Pastor Mary Meadows
