“ Clarence Friley, or to us "Pete", was our neighbor for 5 years when we lived on Michigan Road. He was a saint! With just enough mischief in him to keep us laughing! We would have great conversations and visited him often. He would show us things he had collected during his travels around the world. He was always willing to help us out, give advice, and wave at us every time we pulled in our driveway. We always felt safer with Pete living next door. He was a great guy and made our time living there the best. So happy we had that chance to get to know him.
