“ I remember Aunt Cleo giving me compliments, trying to make me feel good about myself. She once told me I was a very pretty young lady, even though I was already in my 50s at the time! R.I.P., Aunt Cleo.

“ Auntie Cleo was the first and only person in my second week of marriage to teach me a life lesson. I went to the corner laundromat on Gratiot. I didn't have a clue what to do or how to fold a fitted sheet. She showed me about three times and I still fold them like she taught me 43 yrs ago! She alwAys got a kick out of me calling her "mean old Cleo" my prayers to you all to be strong and live on!
We love you cousins and Auntie Mary
