

Clodagh R. Vani

May 29, 1942 - November 28, 2024

Clodagh R. Vani, age 82 of Port Huron, passed away on November 28, 2024. She was born on May 29, 1942, in Donny Brook, Dublin, Ireland to the late James and Ena Egan.

Clodagh loved to attend all the boys' sporting events, when they were younger. She was known as the M&M / candy grandma to many children at the athletic events. She especially loved to spend time with her family.

"Momma Clo" was the neighborhood mom to countless kids (and there were many). She loved to sing Patsy Cline and enjoy White Russians with friends at her favorite spot, The Office Lounge. There she inherited many people who considered her as their adopted mom. Her gift was making sure everyone felt special and included. She will always be remembered for her big and loving heart.

She is survived by her sons; James Vani, Brendan (Terri) Vani, Kevin Vani and Ryan (Tracy) Vani, eight grandchildren; Collin (Brittany) Vani, Lauren (Livi) Vani, Amanda (Matthew) Browning, Alexis (EJ) Haller, Sophia Vani, Nicholas (Kenzi Cusumano) Vani, eight great grandchildren and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Denise Egan.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Thursday - December 12, 2024 from 1:00pm until 4:00pm in the Jowett Funeral Home - 1634 Lapeer Ave., Port Huron.

Memorial contributions can be made to the wishes of the family.

“ Clodagh was such a sweet, wonderful lady. She loved listening to music and singing as well. Her rendition of Crazy was superb. She often came to places I played with Burnwood, and then Straight Shooter. It was always a pleasure to see her out having fun. She will certainly be missed. RIP, Clodagh. Sincerely, Her longtime friend Joe DeHenau

“ Clodagh has been a beautiful friend for years. Our boys have been close friends ever since they were young and have remained “brothers” to this day. She had a beautiful voice and will blend in wonderfully with the angels but will be greatly missed.
