“ Clyde (Bear) Was a great hunter teacher and role model. he was a memorable man whom loved the great outdoors he loved Northern Michigan. he was an avid Fishermen and bow and rifle hunter. He was a hard working man in his life he was a kind and loyal man who's life was too short. He was a great son and step father he helped raise his girlfriends 2 young girls for a short period of time whom he later became engaged too but sadly never married. He was a brave man whom faced many challenges in his life time during the last handful of years in his life he was physically disabled which could not hold him back he fought though this disability and pushed forward to be the strong independent man he was taught to be all while he cared for his elderly mother Veronica Chappell. He often stood face to face with all whom loved him and even those who did not really know him. I JUST WANT THE WORLD TO KNOW Many years ago he was accused of doing a horrible thing and as a 1st hand witness to the accused event I PLEDGE HIS INNOCENCE as I should have many years ago but sadly I did not.. I want the world to know he was a good man who would NEVER harm a soul with ill intentions as he was once accused! He was a stern man who had a huge heart whom never willingly took any bull from anyone! Clyde (Bear) stood firm in what he believed in!... Clyde (Bear) was brought up by two wonderful parents Clyde and Veronica Chappell. His father Clyde passed away Many years back in the 1980's from multiple strokes many of which he survived and fought through like the brave survivor he was. Clyde's (Bear's) Mother Veronica is a creative doll lover and creator whom also taught Indian school for many years and was a collector of both dolls and Indian artifacts. Clyde (Bear) Chappell was a VERY intelligent man who taught many he often shared his vast knowledge of hunting & fishing and other survival facts with his friends and other family members over the years. Clyde (Bear) was once a Navy core-man which he embraced and carried his vast learned survival skills and disciplined organizational skills with him to the very end! Clyde (Bear) you WILL be missed dearly and thought of fondly for years to come you were a good and kind man whose teachings will not be forgotten! He has touched the heart of many and he will be carried on in memory and those memories passed along for many years to come. Bear I know that your above watching over all of us and I hope and pray that your soul is at peace and at ease as your soul take's its final journey to the stars above. I hope that you will watch over those of us whom have been left behind guide us and keep us safe and free of harms way..Thank you for being apart of my life and for helping in making me the person I am today!
