“ Mom,
You were not only my mother but also my best friend, we did everything together, i could always count on you for anything i needed you for no matter how you felt or what you were going thru, i am truly lost and have a emptiness that will never be filled, you were the most amazing, strongest, loving, caring person, you always worried, watched over and put everyone else first, i was blessed to have you as my mother and my best friend, i know your heart is whole again, you and dad are together again, i miss you both every moment, every day, you were an amazing, strong, loving, caring- mother, sister, daughter, friend- i am so very honored to have been blessed with you and will wait for the day that i will see you and dad again, enjoy each other and be happy, your pain here and the battles and struggles that you endured so gracefully with no complaints daily are over now.
I love you more than i could ever express, i know that you know that.
Love you and miss you so very much,
Proud daughter of Connie L. Johnston💕love you mom!!

“ Once she made me pancakes that was minnymouse then when she gave me it her bow broke off the pancake then we all laughed. When she made us burnt popcorn when were watching a movie. When she was up she kept on farting then she said "woops" then she got us dolls so we played with it. Grandma was so nice to us. Then in the morning we ate cereol ,pickels and icecream and went to go see Greace. Then she gave us rings and wrote are names on them so we can take them home.

“ I will never forget learning Bible verses with Connie and Barb at Sparlingville Baptist Church and after school at Kimball Kathy Fleming and I would go home with Connie and she would make the best NO Bake Cookies ever. We had them at least twice a month... Then years later every time I went to my Dentist your grandparents were there and we would catch up on everyone... they were Special people that raised a very "Special" daughterConnie !
May God wrap his arms around all of you and keep you strong.

“ Mom, I'm going to miss stopping in at night to chit-chat and talk about memories, and small talk. It was nice to always see you smiling when I left, and having you there on the holidays. You will be greatly missed, you made an impact on my life and your grand-kids we all love you, heaven has recieved the perfect angel.

Love you mom,

Your son Jesse

Mom,

You are not only my mother, but my bestest friend we did everything together, you were the person who was always there for me whenever i needed you no matter what,

You were the one who always worried, about all of us no matter how you felt you always put us first to make sure we were all ok, you filled my days, you made me laugh when i didn't think it was possible, you had the strength to go through anything that was given to you, the strength that truly amazed me, i am so blessed to have you for a mother, best friend, role model- i am truly lost without you, i know you are pain free now and can put the battle and daily struggles behind you, enjoy your glory time with dad, as well as your own struggles your heart was broken everyday being without him, you are together again 💕 i love you both so much and i have a emptiness that will never be filled, i love you and miss you so much, you will be in my thoughts and on my mind daily, you are truly a wonderful, loving, caring, amazing, strong lady that i was given the honor of calling my mother- my best friend - i love you so much❤️

Sending love and hugs to you and dad, be happy together, we will be together again, until then always know i love you and you were truly an amazing woman, mother, grandmother, sister, daughter ❤️ love you mom!!

“ Connie was a very special person, compassionate and loving. She will be greatly missed by many. I meant her about 48 years ago and she was just one of those people that you like immediately and can always pick up a conversation when ever we got a chance to meet up. She always called my husband her Little Brother. God speed, Connie, to your forever life.
