“ It’s your birthday today, happy birthday I miss u so so so much still and when I said it doesn’t get easier it doesn’t. I know you’d be so proud of me and everything I’ve done, I know u were here for me in the darkest times I needed u the most and I know u guided me through them. You’re getting old 😞 and I am now a month and 18 days away from the age where u left us which is so crazy to me. I love u so so much and I pray you keep watching over me and my family. Miss u dearly and I hope u hear me talking to you when I do 💕 happy birthday.

“ Hey uncle Cory it’s been 2 years since my last time on here again talking to you. I miss you so so much and not a day goes by to where I’m not thinking about you. I hope you are proud of me and I hope you are guiding me in the right direction. I wish you were still here and I wish I could just hug you one more time. I can’t believe how long it has been without you I was just a little girl when u passed away (today) 13 years ago August 13th and now I just had my 21st birthday... u were 22 when u passed how is this even possible that I’m close to your age the day you left us. This hurts more than I can explain but I love you so much and please keep watching over me. ☐ one day I’ll see you again.

“ Hey again, it's been 2 years since I made a comment. Today I started thinking about u again.. I do everyday. It's been 10 years without seeing you and each year just gets harder. I'm starting college in the fall I'm going for a CSI and getting my criminal science bachelor degree. This past years have been really hard for me but I'm pushing myself through them because I know you'd want me to do so. I wish it got easier but it doesn't and that's the hard truth. I miss u more than ever and wish you were here to see all of us accomplish the greater things in life. Love u always❤️❤️ - Maddie.

“ Cory, I've been trying to come up with the right words to say but nothing I say will ever take the pain of losing you away. I'm so glad I have the memories though, and I am so glad that your family will always be apart of my family. You are missed by so many people and loved so much. This is not goodbye, just see you later. Keep an eye on your family, they need all the love and support they can get right now. Help guide them through this. Love you and miss you. Kathy, Jim and Tyler, Nothing I say will ever make this easier, but I will always be there if you guys need anything. You were so strong for us when dad passed, we will be here and be strong for you guys now. Kathy and Jim, you raised an amazing young man and it shows by how many peoples lives he has influenced. Love you guys!!

“ Cory, you were my little brother and I am thankful for the time we had together, even though it was not enough. You were a wonderful brother and uncle to Jenna, Madison, Marissa, and LJ. I remember when you would come home to visit you would come and get the kids all hyped up and then you would be like ok I'm going to go now, leaving me with four hyper kids; I'm sure going to miss that, we all love you so much and are going to miss you. I'll see you again some day love you little brother

“ Sending our love and thoughts to the fields family <3
It will be the little things
that you will remember,
the quiet moments,
the smiles, the laughter.
And although it may seem
hard right now,
it will be the memories
of these little things that help to push
away the pain
and bring the smiles
back again.

“ Cory is an outstanding man. To me, he was my little brother. He and I became very close over the years. I have married his little sister Brandi and I am grateful to have spent the time I have with him. When he was in Afganistan we talked daily. I made sure he knew he was loved back home and that he was not alone. We shared a lot of laughs and some sad times, but he will always live on in my heart. He made us all very proud. I told Tyler even though I can never replace you, I will forever be his older brother. I'm going to be there for you Cory, you have my word. Love "the old man" as you called me. See you in time brother. Thank you for everything.
