“ My daddy was an amazing man! He would give the shirt off his back to anyone if they needed it even if it was his last one! He always wanted to help my sibilings and I even if we said we were fine. He would insist and you couldnt argue with him. One of the last conversations i had with him he asked if i needed anything. I told him i would be fine and he said i know you will be you guys never ask for anything but if you need anything i will try and help you i dont have much but i will do what i can. He loved us so much! Daddy take of my baby Richard until I can be with you again I love you so much i will always be daddys girl or the mail mans kid like you always said!

“ Dan & I meet when we were 17 at Jefferson Adult Learning Center. We passed each other in the hall. He would just look at me. One night I was walking my new pup DJ He was with his friend Jimmy Baxter sitting in his car. He whistled at me. I heard pretty woman playing on the radio. I turned and looked he said Hi my name is Danny. That's how we meet. We just clicked talked about marriage having kids in the future. It happened sooner than we expected. We got married. February. 19., 1983 at Melvin Baptist church in Melvin Michigan. Our first born Jessica Lynn Evenson was born on 8-11-83. Our second was Joady Lorraine Evenson she was born 12-4-84. I had a miscarriage in 85. Our third born is Joseph Anthony Evenson he was born 10-29-86 we have 8 grand kids . We did silly things together. We recorded our selves singing Jack & Diane on my old school cassette record. We laughed so hard. We went fishing together a lot before the kids were born. I would go to the river with the kids fishing with Dan. . We did get a divorce but we always worked together with the kids. He did say to me we did have a lot of good times and. I said we sure did. We always supported each other through the years good or bad. We are friends. On our grand sons Richards remembrances birthday. He said you don't look bad for an old lady I laughed & said you don't look bad either for a hold man. We put our arms around each others waste That was the last time. we talked. I never stopped loving Dan & he never stopped loving me. I won't forget you xoxo
