“ How does one share only one memory? There are so many treasured memories of you that I have, so many that I will hold close to my heart until we meet again, so many that in time will bring a smile to my face instead of sadness. I keep waiting for someone to say it isn't true, life is so cruel at times to steel those away that we love so very much, without warning. I love you Danny more than you could possibly know and I will hold you and cherish you in my heart for always. Until we meet again Rest In Peace brother.

I worked with Dan many years at Gibraltar Sprocket. He was a great friend and I will truly miss sitting around out back behind the house or hanging in the shed.
